

Civil Engineer In Training (E.I.T)

Objectives:

- Capable of putting together a basic set of civil site residential development construction design plans and implementing design ideas on the plans using civil 3D.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Plan Production
- Designs and drafts concepts of engineering drawings.
- Has knowledge of engineering principles.
- Builds on existing knowledge to gain greater understanding of site design and layout, including, but not limited to, site planning, erosion control, storm sewer, sanitary sewer, domestic water and grading designs.
- Able to translate comments from upper-level engineers into workable designs.
- Exercise good judgment in all dealings with employees, customers, and suppliers. Conduct themselves to clients and staff in an ethical manner.
- Create an atmosphere of professional enthusiasm that encourages and enhances our company vision.
- Effectively work with supervisors to ensure deadlines and project expectations can be accomplished within the constraints set.

Customer Service:

- Conduct oneself inside and outside the office in a manner that reflects the dignity and professional attitude of Company. Foster and maintain a superior customer service attitude.

Technical Skills:

- Civil 3D (Auto CAD)
- Pursue professional registrations and other appropriate licenses through ongoing technical training.
- Apply computer skills and knowledge to manage projects and communicate with company personnel.
- Maintain and develop technical design skills necessary to complete projects in an effective and timely manner.

Necessary Qualifications:

- 4 year Bachelor's Degree.
- Successfully passed or actively working towards taking the FE exam.
- Ability to pursue professional registration.

Planners and Engineers is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Part Time Civil Engineer QAQC Reviewer and Mentor

Objectives:

- Capable of review Civil Plans and providing mentorship and training to young engineers.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Plan Review
- Knowledge of engineering principles.
- Create an atmosphere of professional enthusiasm that encourages and enhances our company vision.
- Effectively work with supervisors to ensure deadlines and project expectations can be accomplished within the constraints set.

Customer Service:

- Conduct oneself inside and outside the office in a manner that reflects the dignity and professional attitude of Company. Foster and maintain a superior customer service attitude.

Necessary Qualifications:

- 4 year Bachelor's Degree.
- Professional Engineer (PE)

Planners and Engineers is an Equal Opportunity Employer